PENSION POINTERS.

Inquiries Auswered and Suggestions Made.

D. M., Potersville, Cal .- $12 is the highest rate of invalid pension obtainable un-der the act of June 27, 1890. The rate less of an eye is $17 under the general law, but less must be shown due to service and line of cuty. Unless loss of eye and other disability mentioned can be oven due to service, you are getting as uigh a rate as you can obtain.

J. C., Cospersvile, Mich.—The widow

J. C. Cospersvile, Mich.—The widow not having been married to the soldier before or during his service, is not entitled to restoration of pension under the act of March 3, 1901, or the amendatory act of Feb. 28, 1903.

Subscriber, St. Louis, Mo.—In the case of minor of A. B. P. ersem, in a decision dated July 10, 1901 (13 P. D., 151) it is held that the widow is barred from pension under the act of June 27, 1890, by reason of not being married to the soldier before June 27, 1890; the children of the marriage, that are under 16, are entitled, even though the widow is still living and unmarried. It is required to be shown that the widow is not entitled to pension under the general law, the soldier's mander, J. W. Flinn, A. S. J. R., Knox, Pa.—It was an error of the types that gave the increased rate of pen-sion of Mexican war survivors as "$20" per month. The correct amount is $12. per month. The correct amount is $12.

C. A., Petersburg, Mich.—As your general law claim was filed several years before the date from which your act of 1890 pension commenced, you will in any event derive same benefit from the allowance of the old claim. You can take the arrears and do as you think best about changing from the act of 1890 to the general law.

is factorily explained. The ratings are wholly arbitrary, in so far as they are fixed by statute.

H. W., Napa, Cal.—As you are pensioned under the general law, the reason why your increase claim was rejected may be because it is held that your condition is largely due to age and disabilities not shown to be due to the service or to pensioned disabilities. You can make a new application for increase at any time. The rejected claim will require strong medical evidence showing your condition to be assyon state, and to be due to pensioned disabilities, before it can be reopened. It will hardly do any good to write a letter to the Commissioner personally. The Commissioner cannot look at a tenth part of the cases that claimants want him to personally consider. He could not do so even if he had no other duties to perform and worked day and night week in and week out. An appeal may be justifiable in your case. Your attorney can best advise you as to this.

"2. In the claims of widows and minors, where no declaration under the joint resolution has been filed, a like affidavit should be called for, setting forth the number of the former pension ce tificate, all services rendered by the soldier; whether the widow has remarried since the date of dropping; whether all minor children are still living; and whether the dependence of the widow has continued to exist since the date of dropping.

"3. In invalid cases in which the rate of pension has been fixed by the Bureau or adjusted under Order 225, either by the Board of Revision or under a pending claim for increase, pension will be restored at the rate paid at time of dropping without requiring proof of continuance or the ordering of a medical examination, unless a specific claim for increase of pension was pending at the time of dropping from the rolls or one has been filed since.

"4. When the rate had not been fixed or adjusted under Order 225, a medical examination should be ordered and restore ation may be granted at the rate to which the proof may show the applicant to be entitled. Should it be decided in such cases that a rate from date of dropping is not warranted, but that a ratable degree of disability is shown to have existed from a date subsequent thereto, pension may be renewed from the date of the filing of the affidavit mentioned above, upon the proof required in such cases under the practice. 'Twas fullpulsed summer-time Of the New World, With more than half a full Millennial growth
Of chartered liberty,* for faithful clapt glad hands. And all the Morning Stars of this new earth And heav'n sang full together, in the blue And Hope grew fairer still, and men rejoiced.

Sing yet again, glad stars, with those new born, A constellation glorious And hear the myriad sons of men Anew; for still The Banner floats, and still New planets waken into birth, from that Great Nebular God kept in store for us. Through waiting ages, cre

The Flag was born. Keep, yet, the dear Old Glory new and true, Nor dim the radiance of For that sure-coming, true own interest, as well as in the interest of the distin-quished author.

ROOSEVELT BOOKS. These are the last of the popular edition of the President's books. We are informed that future editions will sell for high prices—something like $10 a volume. We believe this report, because pienty of people will buy the President's books at whatever cost. It is a good business move on the part of the publisher in his own interest, as well as in the interest of the distinguished author.

Heretofore, we understand, the President's profits have not been nearly commensurate for his labors as an author. He is an open-handed man who probably cared little about royalities. We will all be glad to learn that his labors will be liberally rewarded. Mcanwhile, and for a little while only, we have these ten volumes of the President's books for sale at $5-only 50 cents a volume. When they are all gone these volumes will be apt to double and treble in value.
